Comparing adjectives

Name _____ Date _____

🎯 I can compare things with -er and -est adjectives.

1 The rule 💡

Add -er to an adjective to compare two things (tall, taller). Add -est to compare three or more things (tall, tallest).

A dog is bigger than a cat. A whale is the biggest of all.

2 Look and say 📚

faster
faster than a turtle

fastest
the fastest of all

taller
taller than a dog

tallest
the tallest animal

bigger
bigger than a cat

biggest
the biggest animal

slower
slower than a dog

slowest
the slowest of all

FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS

Answer key: comparing adjectives

1 Sort the words

-er: two things: taller, faster, smaller, longer, happier, bigger

-est: three or more: tallest, fastest, smallest, longest, happiest, biggest

2 Find it in a sentence

1. higher 2. longest 3. taller 4. coldest 5. faster 6. funniest 7. smaller 8. biggest

3 Write it

1. taller 2. fastest 3. colder 4. longest 5. bigger 6. happiest

4 Teaching tip 💡

Line up three objects of different sizes. Compare two ("The pencil is longer than the crayon"), then all three ("The ruler is the longest"). Children hear the rule before they read it.

Watch for: Using -est for only two things, as in "the tallest of the two." Two things take -er; three or more take -est. Also watch the spelling changes: big, bigger; happy, happier.
