GRAMMAR

Possessive nouns

Name _____ Date _____

🎯 I can use an apostrophe to show who owns something.

1 The rule 💡

A possessive noun shows who owns something. Add 's for one owner (the dog's bone). Add just ' to a plural that ends in s (the kids' ball).

The dog's bone is next to the cats' bowl.

2 Look and say 📚

dog's
the dog's bone

bird's
the bird's nest

spider's
the spider's web

turtle's
the turtle's shell

Dad's
Dad's cap

teacher's
the teacher's books

kids'
the kids' ball

cats'
the cats' bowl

FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS

Answer key: possessive nouns

1 Sort the words

one owner: dog's, bird's, Mom's, teacher's, boy's, frog's

more than one: dogs', birds', kids', teachers', boys', frogs'

2 Find it in a sentence

1. cat's 2. Noor's 3. bird's 4. kids' 5. brother's 6. turtle's 7. teacher's 8. bees'

3 Write it

1. dog's 2. bird's 3. spider's 4. Dad's 5. kids' 6. cats'

4 Teaching tip 💡

Ask "Who owns it?" first. Write the owner, then decide: one owner gets 's; more than one owner ending in s gets just an apostrophe after the s.

Watch for: Putting an apostrophe in every plural, as in "two cat's". If nothing is owned, there is no apostrophe: two cats.
