4 Teaching tip 💡

Draw a timeline on the board: yesterday, now, tomorrow. Act out an action, such as walking in place, and have children describe it at each point: I was walking, I am walking, I will be walking.

Watch for: Leaving out the helping verb, as in "I walking." A progressive verb always has two parts: a helping verb (am, is, are, was, were, will be) and an -ing verb.
