I read it: ☆ to myself ☆ to a grown-up ☆ to a friend

1 On Monday morning, Leo couldn't find his lunchbox. He looked on the kitchen table. He looked in his backpack. It wasn't there.

2 "Let's be detectives," said his sister Hana. "First, we look for clues."

3 The first clue was on the floor: a trail of cracker crumbs leading to the back door. The second clue was outside on the porch: a wet paw print. The third clue was a noise. Crunch, crunch, crunch! It was coming from under the porch steps.

4 Leo and Hana bent down and peeked. There was Biscuit, their puppy, with the lunchbox between his paws. The lid was open, and the crackers were gone!

5 Leo laughed. "Case closed," he said. Dad packed Leo a new lunch, and Hana made a sign for the kitchen: KEEP LUNCHBOXES AWAY FROM BISCUIT.
