The Snow Day Plan

Name _____ Date _____

Fiction | 180 words | Characters and their actions

I read it: ☆ to myself ☆ to a grown-up ☆ to a friend

1 When Bilal looked out the window, the whole street was buried under a foot of snow. School was closed! He and his little brother Zayd grabbed their sleds and raced to the door.

2 Then Bilal noticed something across the street. Mr. Kim, their neighbor, was standing on his porch with a cane, staring at his snowy driveway. He usually walked to the grocery store every morning, but today he could not even reach the sidewalk.

3 Bilal looked at his sled, then at Mr. Kim. "Sledding can wait," he told Zayd. The boys borrowed two shovels from the garage. They worked for an hour, scraping and lifting until their arms ached and their cheeks turned pink. Zayd sprinkled salt on the steps so they would not be slippery.

4 When they finished, Mr. Kim came down his clear path with a wide smile. He insisted they come inside for hot cocoa, and he told them stories about sledding as a boy in Korea. That afternoon, the brothers finally went sledding. Bilal decided it was the best snow day he had ever had.
